1. [REDACTED] will join the CT Staff 2 January. Tom stopped by this week to meet the Staff and is looking forward to beginning his duties as CT Program Officer.

2. [REDACTED] a member of the July 1972 CT Class, was hospitalized this past week with an illness that has not been specifically diagnosed but appears to be a form of rheumatism. He hopes to be discharged soon and we are following the progress of his recovery.

3. We are now completing final details of the organization of the January 1973 CT Class. Unless there is a last minute administrative hitch the class will consist of 26 members. Of the 26 members 21 will be externals, three will be internals who will be carried on CT rolls, and two will be internals who will remain on the rolls of their present components in OSR and NPIC. There will be three women and one Black.
